The Why Not Today? Podcast - Season 3 - Episode 34, Jennifer Seifert, Pumpkins for Pigs Foundation

This episode features Jennifer Seifert, Founder and CEO, Pumpkins for Pigs Foundation. Jennifer shares her courage journey of starting the non-profit, Pumpkins for Pigs

Foundation. Pumpkins For Pig’s mission is to reduce food waste in our communities by diverting viable foodstuffs including pumpkins to farms, animal sanctuaries, and rescues for feed or compost. Jennifer shares her journey from one pumpkin to filling the gap between human-consumable food and compost by redirecting viable foodstuffs to animals. They build a growing network of donation sites – farms, animal sanctuaries, and rescues

– that accept a variety of food they can feed to their animals. We talked about the food waste and ways to help others including animals. Get involved in your community and avoid the waste of pumpkins just thrown away that end up in landfills. Jennifer encourages us to just do one thing and take one step to make a difference in your life and the lives of others.

The “Why Not Today?” Podcast, hosted by Leslie Kane, showcases individuals who have boldly asked themselves, “Why not today?” and have taken courageous actions. In a heartfelt tribute to her father, Patrick Kane. This podcast serves as a beacon of encouragement, reminding us all that sometimes the most transformative moments begin with a simple question: Why not today?
